SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, who will soon be one of the many alumni of Concord Training School, passing through these portals from this institution of learning, being supposedly of sound mind and memory, do hereby write and publish this, our last will and testament, revoking all former promises and wills heretofore made by us, and do leave this to our beloved faculty and underclassmen, so that they might realize the deep feeling and love we have for this institution.

ARTICLE I

Section 1 We give and bequeath to the faculty, who has given to us wisdom and knowledge, all deeds and patents in our possession which express the knowledge, and startling information so necessary to the future discoveries of science, history, and math.

ARTICLE II

Section 1 As we bequeath our earthly possessions, we sincerely hope they will be received, not as antiques or used articles, but, as generous offerings to be admired and treasured in the years to come.

- I, Sandy Pennington, will my ability to argue to Sonny Wells. Use your head, Sonny.
- I, Peggy Wells, will my baby brother to Ruth Thompson for another year. Take good care of him, Ruth.
- I, Richard Compton, will my 6' 3" to Jimmy Coburn. You'll need it when you play for Joe.
- I, Don Keaton, will my curly hair to Dickie Peck so that he will be able to keep it out of his eyes on the basketball court.
- I, Patty Goode, will my ability to eliek with the teachers to Billy Jennings. You might glance sideways, too, Red.
- I, Hubert Pennington, will my singing ability to Mary Kay Young. Come on in - Lonzo.
- I, Roberta Pennington, will my ability to dance to Betty Anne Goodall. Jack goes to Cook's Hall, too, Pud.
- I, Edward Clemons, will Chuck Akers my flier's license. Watch out for the clouds.
- I, Dale Bowling, will Kenneth Meadows my civilian pants. I won't be needing them anymore.
- I, Bertha Sue Martin, will my geometry book to Virginia Alvis. It hasn't been used.
- I, Mason Snider, will my knife to Junior Parker. It is yours anyway, Junior.
- I, Frank Martin, will my twin sister to Bill Jennings. Take good care of her.
- I, Dot Bailey, will my giggles to Bulah Anderson. Cheer up, Bulah.
- I, Edna Taylor, will my long hair to Lynn Robinson. Drop those scissors, Lynn.
- I, Helen Wood, will my long finger nails to Jackie Goodall.
- I, Maxine Walter, will my beautiful waves to Mescal Mays. Let's buy some wave lotion, Mescal.
- I, Audrey Doyle, will my dancing ability to Louise Butler. Lessie's can't be beat.
- I, Janis Reed, will my love of books to Betty Hodges.
- I, Jimmy Farley, will my red hair to Faye Williams.
- I, Aubrey Keaton, will my dislike for studying to Ronnie Martin. Book worms are not popular.
- I, Nancy Wiley, will my ability to keep a man to Alice Jo Holdren. Hold on, Wacker.
- I, Richard Hight, will my ability to shoot snowbirds to Ronnie Redden. Sink'em, Fatback.
- I, Rufus Reed, will my "D" average to Jack Akers. Dig hard, Jack.
- I, Jimmy White, will nothing to everybody.
- I, Thelma Elmore, will my typing ability to next year's annual staff.
- I, Garnett Lambert, will my ability to get an engagement ring to Ila Butler. Get on the ball, Ila.
- I, Joyce Blankenship, will my trim haircut to Ruby Caperton. Let it grow, Ruby.
- I, Jim Rutherford, will my laugh to Jerry Williams. Laugh and the world laughs with you - (or at you).
- I, Oma Hazelwood, will my thick black eye brows to Shelva Crews. Looks better natural, Shelva.
- I, Betty Harvey, will my desire to play a guitar to Helen Heroey. Pick it out, Helen.
- I, Jeanne Wiseman, will my ability to keep my mouth shut to Hawey Wells. Watch your tongue, Sonny.
- I, Junior Parker, will to Richard Moore my attraction for girls. Don't let Romeo beat you.
