THE CONCORD TROJAN

Published By
THE CLASS OF '54
CONCORD TRAINING HIGH SCHOOL
Athens, West Virginia

Foreword

The senior class and annual staff of 1954 present the fourth edition of the Concord Trojan.

It is our desire to awaken in the hearts of all the pleasant memories and recollections of former days.

Into the hands of its owner, we commend this volume, with the hope that it will portray as accurately as possible life as we have known it at Concord Training School.

In the years to come, as you turn the pages of this book, may you relive the best years of your life--those at C. T. S.

Dedication

There is one missing among our faculty whom we shall always love and remember for her friendliness, her understanding sympathy, her unwavering loyalty, her fine religious character, and her life long devotion to her profession. Beginning a teaching career in 1908 at Buffalo Calif, Doddridge County, she was an experienced teacher with eighteen years of service to her credit before coming to Mercer County. She taught in Doddridge, Taylor, Ritchie, Harrison, Raleigh, Marion, and Brooke. The last twenty-five years of "a job well done" were at Concord Training Elementary School. In grateful appreciation of the many services she has rendered, We, the Senior Class of 1954, dedicate this volume of the Concord Trojan to--

Last Will And Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby write and publish this, our last will and testament, revoking all former wills and promises heretofore made by us, and do leave this to our beloved underclassmen and teachers, so that they might realize the deep feeling and love we have for them.

ARTICLE I

Section I. To the Seniors of '55 we leave best wishes for the future and success in everything they strive to do.
Section II. To the Seniors of '56 we leave our intelligence, good manners, courtesy, and pleasing personality.
Section III. To the Seniors of '57 we leave our happiest, most pleasant year, our senior year.

- I, Joan Rowland, will my "Burry the Dead" to Peggy Pennington. "Don't let it get you down, Peg."
I, James White, will my handsomeness to Charles Brunk.
I, Forest Conner, will my beautiful brown eyes to Lucy Alvis. "Roll those eyes, Lucy."
I, Leslie Easter, will my inability to skip school to Charles Craig. "They always catch you, Charles."
I, Curtis Carter, will my pleasing smile to John Price. "Smile and the world smiles with you, John."
I, Maynard Sisk, will my ability to ask questions to Freddy Gunter. "Curiosity is a fine thing, Freddy."
I, Jerry Martin, will my ability to sell anything to all members of the Junior Class. "You need no experience, just a good fist and a brave front."
I, Bill Jennings, will my driving ability to Dorsey Martin. "You are a fine instructor, Dorsey."
I, Jack Akers, will my civilian clothes to Charles Craig. "You'll be a well dressed man, Charles."
I, Betty Hodges, will my red coat to Mary Jane Keatley. "Watch those colors, Lizzie."
I, David Lambert, will my English ability to Hilda Osborne.
I, Gene Cox will a part of my hair to Mr. Perry. "You don't need much, Mr. Perry."
I, Shelva Caldwell, will my curly hair to Patricia Ayers. "Try a Toni, Pat."
I, Anna Lee McCroskey, will my dark eyelashes to Jettie Taylor. "Paint 'em up, Jettie."
I, Mayphus Sisk, will my quietness to Mary Higginbotham. "Don't be so loud, Mary."
I, Catherine Wiley, will my ability to make friends easily to Lucille Bauguess. "Friends are great Love."
I, Ann Alvis, will my ability to hold a man to Phyllis Wiley. "Hold on, Phyllis."
I, Amon Reed, will my mental ability to any student needing it.
I, Donald Lambert, will my truck to Tom Matthews. "It never gets you to school on time, Tom."
I, Carol Compton, will my musical talent to Phil Robertson. "Public appearances help, Doc."
I, Nan Wilson, will my shortness and small feet to Jerry Williams. "Special made things come high, Jerry."
I, Betty Coburn, will my spare time to Carol Lilly. "Forget about Glee Club, Carol."
I, Margaret Carper, will my studiosness to Virginia Ann Alvis. "Don't study too hard, Virginia. Have some fun."
I, Pat Oxley, will my slender figure to Janice Smith. "Don't eat so much, Janice."
I, Anna Lee Caperton, will my ability to go steady to Elsie Pennington. "Hold him tight, Elsie."
I, George Keatley, will my ability to be on time to Pat Moore. "Speed up, Pat."
I, Wilma Kessinger, will my shyness to Jettie Taylor. "Calm down, Jettie."
I, Wilma Hazelwood, will my black eyebrows to Carol Crews. "You won't need that make-up now, Carol."
I, Gay Caperton, will my winning personality to Jean Pettrey. "Be happy, go lucky, Jean."
I, Faye Williams, will myself to Jimmy Farley. "The Army has him now, I'll get him later."
I, Blakie Bowline, will my ability to click with more than one man to Gypsy Wiley. "You can change more often now, Gypsy."
I, Florence Redden, will my ability to click with all men to Shirley Parker. "Love 'em and leave 'em, Shirley."
I, Chester Pettrey, will my height and basketball ability to Jimmy Coburn. "Make good use of it, Jimmy."
I, Betty Crews, will my ability to keep my mouth shut to Calvin Pomeroy. "Watch your tongue, Calvin."
I, Norma Martin, will my freckles to Louise Bennett. "I love freckles, Louise."
I, Patty Mays, will my similes to Madeline Ford. "I think they are cute, Madeline."
I, Joan Wiley, will my ability not to gripe when I am depressed to anyone who doesn't possess this ability."
I, Jack Parker, leave my speaking ability to Libby Hight. "Not that you need it, Libby."
I, Ted Hazelwood, will my quietness and friendly disposition to Jessie Wiley. "It pays to keep quiet, Jessie."
I, Alice Jo Holdren, will my ability to cheerlead to Joy Meador.
I, Shirley Harrison, will my frequent visits to the dentist to Mary Jane Keatley. "Keep those teeth in good condition, Mary Jane."

ARTICLE II

Section I. We do hereby appoint and constitute our Senior Sponsors, Mrs. Ruth M. Thompson and Mrs. Garnet C. White, as sole executors of this last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1954.

COACH OF THE YEAR

For the second time our coach, Joe Vachon, has been awarded a certificate certifying to the highest honor that can come to any area coach.

Joe has coached basketball at Concord Training School for the last twenty-five years. During this time Concord Training has had a splendid record. Not only have his teams dominated their own class of competition, but have also made life miserable for every class A club he can coax into going on his schedule.

Concord Training has a 17-3 season record, winning the sectional, regional, and Southern district tournaments. At Morgantown in 1950 and 1953 they captured the All-State B Class championship. This is the only B Class team to hold the honor of twice winning the All-State.
