THE TROJAN

THE TROJAN

ATHENS HIGH SCHOOL

Athens, West Virginia

Carol Butler and Carol Purser, Editors

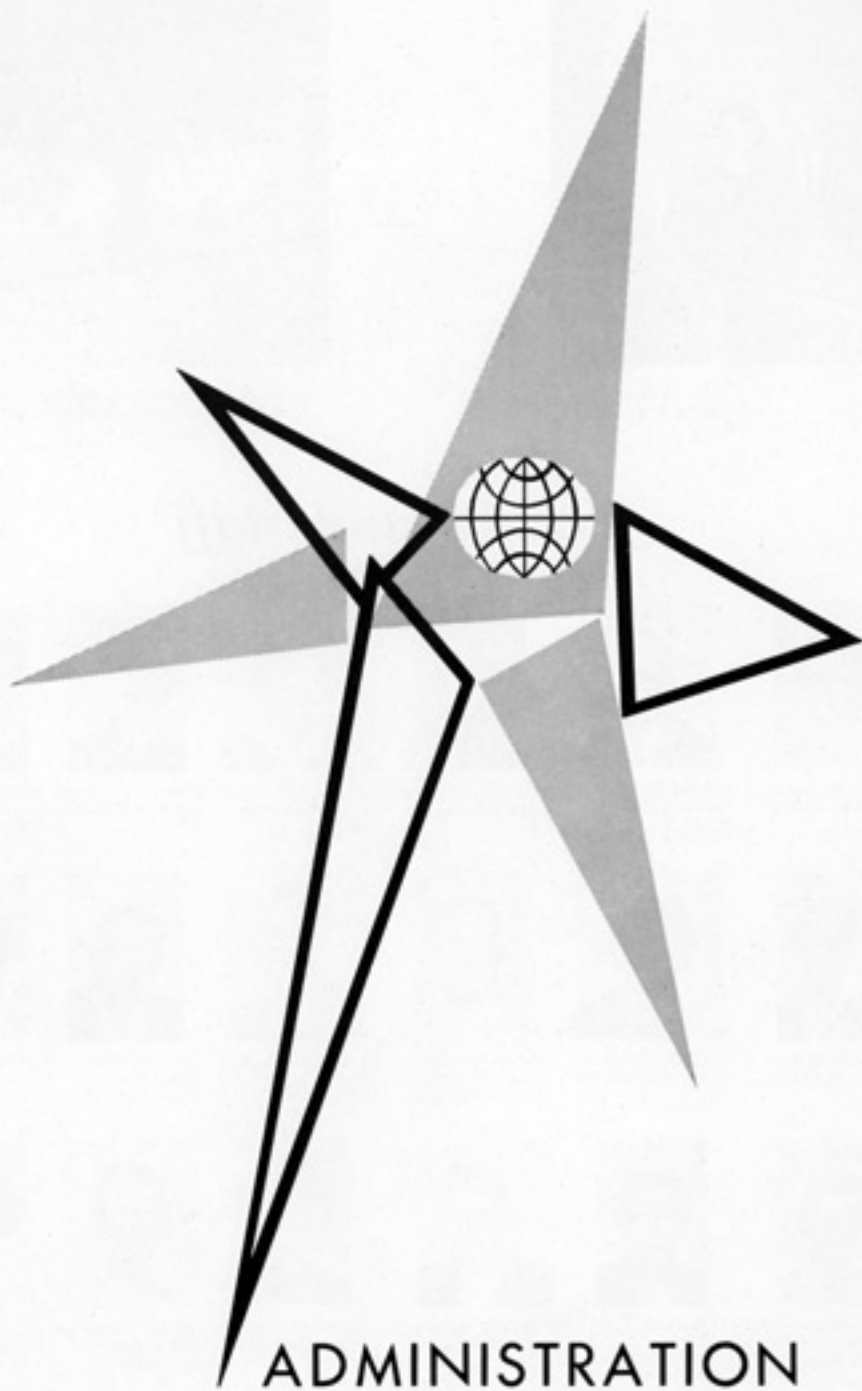

DEDICATION

This 1965 TROJAN is dedicated to Athens High School; the teachers, seniors, and lower classmen. It is dedicated to the teachers because they have so generously given their time and effort to the activities of the school. They are always willing to offer students assistance and encouragement in any possible way. Without their patience and understanding many of us would not have succeeded.

Within these pages the seniors will find a few of the memories that have been a part of their life at their Alma Mater. In years to come when they look back into the past; the friendships and experiences captured here will be among their most cherished. As they leave Athens High School the seniors urge the lower classmen to add to their knowledge, friendship, and experiences.

The TROJAN is also dedicated to the lower classmen to help give them goals to attain. As they advance day by day the undergraduates are gaining scholastic achievement and social accomplishments toward the day when the TROJAN becomes their memory.
